ELEMENTS OF ISLAAM

ISLAAM

It refers to submitting oneself to the teachings brought by the Prophet Sallallahu Alaihi Wa Sallam abiding by the commands and refraining from the prohibitions.

ELEMENTS OF ISLAAM

There are four elements of Islaam. They are as follows:

1. Al-Qur'aan
2. Al-Hadeeth
3. Al-Ijmaa'
4. Al-Qiyaas

AL-QUR'AAN

The sacred scripture of Allaah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala, which was revealed to the last and final Prophet; Muhammad Sallallahu Alaihi Wa Sallam. The book guides people to their religious and worldly affairs. It teaches man how to get preparation for the eternal life.

AL-HADEETH

The statements and practices of the Nabee Sallallahu Alaihi Wa Sallam which explain the Qur'aanic teachings and direct mankind to those instructions.

AL-IJMAA'

The term Ijmaa' is used for the unanimity of the Ulamaa on a religious matter in a way that the majority of Muslims approve that unity.

AL-QIYAAS

It refers to comparing a matter, which bears no clear Islaamic evidence, with a similar one on the basis of having common Illah-ground for Hukm-ruling.

QUESTION

1. What is Islaam?
2. What are the elements of Islaam?
3. What is Qur'aan?
4. What is Hadeeth?
5. What is Ijamaa'?
6. What is Qiyaas?

LESSON 2

ISLAAMIC LAWS

There are five types of Islaamic laws. They are follows:

1. Al-Fardh
2. Assunnah
3. Al-Haraam
4. Al-Makrooh
5. Al-Mubaah

AL-FARDH

It is such a law that whoever abides by it will be rewarded, and whosoever neglects it will be punished. Fardh and Wajeeb always imply the same meaning except in the chapter of Hajj.

ASSUNNAH

It is an instruction that there is reward for one who follows it. But there is no punishment for one who does not act upon it. Sunnah, Mandoob and Mustahaab are of the same meaning.

AL-HARAAM

It is such an act that whoever abstains from committing it will be rewarded, and whosever commits it will be punished.

AL-MAKROOH

It refers to such a deed that whoever refrains from committing it will be rewarded. But there is no punishment for one who commits it.

AL-MUBAAH

It is an act that there is no reward for one who observes it nor there is any punishment for a person who leaves it off.

TYPES OF FARDH

Fardh is of two types:

1. Fardh Al-Ain
2. Fardh Al-Kifaayah

FARDH AL-AIN

It is an injunction which is necessary for every sane and adult to abide by individually. If some people perform this command then it will not be accomplished from the rest.

FARDH AL-KIFAAYAH

It is such a ruling which is necessary for every sane and adult to observe individually. But if some people perform it then this obligation will be accomplished from the rest.

LESSON 3 TAHAARAH<sup>1</sup>

It is a specific method of cleansing which is conditional for the validity of Salaah. There are two types of cleanliness; cleanliness from Hadath-invisible impurity and cleanliness from Khabath-visible impurity.

TAHAARAH FROM HADATH

It is to cleanse oneself performing Wudu-ablution, Ghusl-bath or Tayammum, an alternative of the former two.

TAHAARAH FROM KHABTH

It is to cleanse oneself after Istinjaa-answering to the natural calls, and remove impurity from one's body, clothes and place (of prayer).

TYPES OF MUTAHHIRAAT<sup>2</sup>

The following four can be used for cleansing.

1. Clean water
2. Clean soil
3. Clean stone

<sup>1</sup> Cleanliness

WATER WHICH IS CLEAN AND CAN BE USED FOR CLEANSING

All types of rain and spring-water, which have not changed any of their qualities<sup>1</sup> because of having been mixed with something that can pollute them. Like seawater, river-water, ice-water, snow-water and similar water.

WATER THAT HAS CHANGED BUT CAN BE USED FOR CLEANSING

Water, which has changed any or all of its qualities because of having been mixed with something that cannot pollute it, is of five types.

1. Water that has changed because of its being stagnant for a long period or due to its being birth place of fish and frogs.
2. Water which has changed because of the place where it is standing, the channel it flows through or having been mixed with clay or salt.
3. Water that has changed because of having been mixed with something impossible to avoid it, like the leaves of tree which fall on water through wind.
4. Water that has changed due to the colour of port which has been painted, tar for instance.
5. Water which has changed because of the impurity that is laying nearby. A stinking corpse for instance, laying next to water and water changes its quality due to getting mixed with odour through wind. Or water that has changed because of getting mixed with something which cannot be separated such as oil or fat.

WATER CLEAN ITSELF BUT CANNOT BE USED FOR CLEANSING

There are three types of water which are clean themselves but they cannot be used for cleansing.

1. Water which has changed completely because of having been mixed with something pure which is not an integral part of water nor is it laying nearby, like sugar and honey.
2. Little quantity of water that has already been used for cleansing.
3. Water that has been extracted from any tree by rinsing, boiling or any similar method, such as rose and coconut-water.

POLLUTED WATER

Polluted water is of two types.

METHOD OF CLEANSING HUKMIYYAH

The place or object which is polluted by this impurity will be regarded pure when it is washed, even one time with clean water.

MUWAAFIQ

Muwaafiq is a follower who joins the congregation at a moment that he gets a chance to recite Faatihah before the Imaam bows down for Ruku'.

RULING FOR MASBOOQ

1. If Masboo finds the Imaam in the position of Ruku', he will join him in the Ruku' without reading Al-Faatihah. If he gets the Imaam easily in Ruku' then it will be considered that he has got this Rak'h.
2. When he gets the Imaam in standing position, but the Imaam bows down for Ruku' before the Masbooq completes Al-Fatihah then he should also bow down for Ruku' with Imaam, if he was not busy in reading opening Du'aa or Ta'awwuz. It is not necessary for him to recite the rest of Faatihah.
3. If he gets the Imaam in standing position and begins reading the opening Du'aa or Ta'awwuz, and before he completes reciting Faatihah, the Imaam bows down for Ruku' then he has to stay behind for as long as he was busy with the Du'aa or Ta'awwuz. Thereafter, if he meets the Imaam in the position of Ruku' then it will be considered that he has got that Rakaat. But if the Imaam stands up from Ruku' before the Masbooq bows down then it will be considered that he has missed that Rak'h. If the Imaam performs Sajdaah before the Masbooq completes Faatihah, his Salaah will be invalid, if he has not intended separation from the Jamaat.

RULING FOR MUWAAFIQ

1. Muwaafiq must complete Faatihah. If the Imaam goes to Ruku' before the Muwaafiq completes Faatihah, he should stay behind in order to complete it.
2. When he stays behind for reciting Faatihah, he is permitted to make delay in following Imaam to the extent of three Arkaan due to any of the following reasons:
  - a) When Muwaafiq is habitual of reading slow not because of Wawasah while the Imaam reads in normal speed.
  - b) When he forgets reciting Faatihah and remembers it before making Ruku' with the Imaam. But if he remembers it after performing Ruku', he will not perform it at the same. He will continue following the Imaam and after making Salaam, he will perform one Rakaat more.
  - c) When he engages himself with the opening Du'aa or Ta'awwuz thinking that he will recite Suratul Faatihah before the Imaam goes to Ruku' but he can not. If he fails to recite Faatihah and does not get the Imaam in the position of Ruku' then that Rak'h is missed and he will perform it after the Imaam makes Salaam.
